

Feeling stuck?

Wanting to make change?

Could a conversation with a person who has successfully overcome family violence help?

Aviva Specialist Peer Support
A new way to be - a new way to work

Aviva's Specialist Peer Support Service offers an opportunity to engage with another person who has successfully overcome family violence and is able to walk alongside you on your personal journey towards a fulfilled life, free from violence.

Aviva's Peer Support Specialists are available to work with you at any stage of your journey and, whilst complimenting any other service you may already be receiving, Specialist Peer Support is quite different.

Check us out! There are lots of ways to get in touch. If you're already working with someone at Aviva ask them to introduce you. Alternatively, you can fill out your own referral form (on the back of this flyer) and we will call you back.

For more information please speak to Beryl Brogden, Peer Services Manager;
